

“ Los Angeles Times, Best of 2007”

By Lewis Segal
Times Staff Writer
December 16, 2007

Los Angeles Ballet in "Apollo," "Serenade" and "Rubies," various venues, May. This fledgling company has a lot of growing to do. But throwing itself into three Balanchine masterworks, it emerged covered with honor. Credit Colleen Neary's meticulous stagings and the dancing of such worthies as Melissa Barak, Corina Gill and Oleg Gorboulev (in, unfortunately, his final performances with the company).